Description

Akyga® AK-SC-35 service cable is a rescue for damaged wires in the power supply. The long 1.2 m cable is terminated with a 5.5x2.1 mm connector. It will allow for convenient connection of various types of power and lighting equipment. Its undoubted advantage is specially prepared for soldering wires without termination, which will not only facilitate, but also significantly improve the installation of the cable in the device. In addition, the product is characterised by a solid performance and high quality of used components. This translates into its high durability and resistance to a current load of 4.74 A. Therefore, it is also an ideal solution for replacing heating cables in various types of power supplies, not only for a router, switch, LCD monitor, but also for LED strips consuming up to 90 W of power.
