Description

Adapter Akyga® AK-CA-33 converting the PCI-Express power connector to the EPS 8-pin connector of the motherboard (CPU power).
The cable is handy when the computer power supply does not have the required motherboard connector and at the same time is equipped with a PCI-Express power connector (6-pin or 8-pin). The adapter allows powering motherboards and next-generation CPUs, for which the power supply equipped with the classic P4 (4-pin) power supply connector can not be used.
