Description

Akyga® AK-AD-01 is a high quality, aesthetically made HDMI angle adapter, used to connect the HDMI cable at a 90-degree angle to the base socket.

It is used when installing cables for audio and video devices such as televisions or home theater systems that have a hard-to-reach HDMI socket. Gold-plated terminals and high precision of workmanship allow for the highest quality signal transmission, the adapter supports HDMI version 1.4. The adapter is bi-directional, which means it supports data transfer in both directions.
